

Jun Huang <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0947-1936>

He received his B.S. and M.S. degree in computer & application major from Hunan University and Chang Jiang University in 1982 and 1992, respectively. He is currently with the College of Modern Science and Technology, China Jiliang University as an associate professor of computer engineering. His research interests include network communication, digital image processing and multimedia processing.

Xiuhui Wang <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-1773-9760>

He received his Ph.D. in information and computing science major from Zhejiang University in 2007. He is currently with the college of information engineering, China Jiliang University as an associate professor of computer engineering. His research interests focus on computer graphics, computer vision, and computer networks.

Jun Wang <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-1569-723X>

He received the bachelor degree from South China Agricultural University, China, in 2014. He is currently a master student at college of information engineering, China Jiliang University. His research focuses on the pattern recognition and computer vision.